TRAVEL TIPS

Traveling to China can have some serious surprises for tourists.
Use this guide to make your trip to China a breeze!

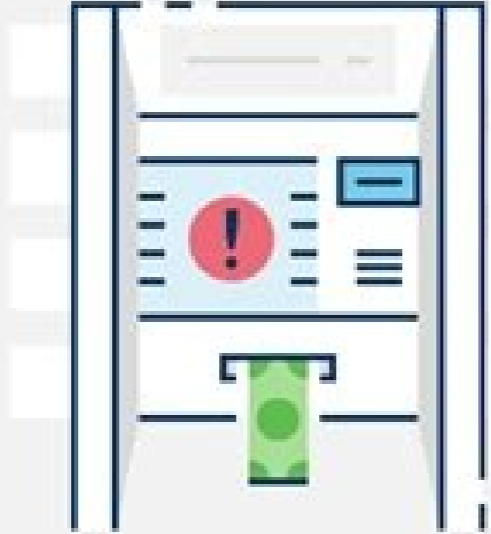

MONEY

CASH IS KING!

China has its own credit cards and is not open to using Visa or Mastercard yet.

While many places DO accept American credit cards, don't count on it!

BE CAREFUL!

ATMs may spit out counterfeit currency. Getting cash directly from banks or currency exchange kiosks is recommended.

NOTE FOR SHOPPERS:

Aside from a few higher end stores, bargaining is commonplace in China, even for things like groceries. Don't be afraid to haggle!

TECHNOLOGICAL DIFFICULTIES

Purchase a VPN before arriving in China (particularly for those staying for work/school).

Most American sites will be blocked, including:

- ✗ Google
- ✗ Twitter
- ✗ Youtube
- ✗ Facebook
- ✗ Wikipedia

NAVIGATING THE LANGUAGE BARRIER

Cantonese and Mandarin are the two main languages.

English is getting more popular but most don't speak it. Learn a few phrases, and write down where you're staying!

If you're lost and need assistance, consider asking a younger person. Those under 25 are more likely to speak English and be able to help.

LIVING IN CHINA

WATER

Drink bottled water! Avoid tap water whenever possible.

BATHROOMS

Prepare for the toilets - there are many squat toilets without any toilet paper.

Consider bringing your own toiletries to take with you, including:

-  Toilet Paper
-  Hand Sanitizer
-  Napkins (for those going out to eat)

IMPORTANT VISA INFORMATION

CHINA REQUIRES VISITORS FROM MOST COUNTRIES TO HAVE A VISA.

These visas can take up to four weeks to acquire. It's recommended that travelers visit a visa service that will ensure timely delivery.

Typical tourist and business visas are usually issued in 10 business days or less.

That's where Swift Passport Services can help!

WAYS TO APPLY FOR A TOURIST VISA

VISIT A CHINESE CONSULATE

- x2 Requires two in-person visits
- Can include long waits in line
- Can include trips through heavy traffic areas in downtown locations

VISIT A VISA SERVICES FACILITY LIKE SWIFT PASSPORT SERVICES

- No need to visit in person
- FedEx pickup and delivery
- Work with travel experts to ensure a hassle-free process

SPECIAL BONUS TIP

Summer months are defined by sweltering heat and large crowds.

China's off-season, from late October to March, is ideal for travelers looking to experience a less hectic side of the tourist scene.

"Western" food has a generally higher price than in the West, so if you can survive for a tour without a sandwich, real Italian pasta, or coffee coffee He saves dollars every day. (See Planning a tour of Tibet.) Be patient! Don't book the first flight you meet or put your mind to the first itinerary you like. Great discounts are available if you travel in a group of 5 or more or join one of our organized group tours. Most airlines offer low-season discounts, so flight savings of up to 60% are possible. The expanding bullet train network covers long-distance travel at a time similar to a flight (in addition to airport transportation, formalities, etc.), but at half the cost or not. Explore the cheapest destinations China has a huge depth of tourist attractions and destinations. For the trip when you arrive in China, and do the rescue at home with you! There are some great savings to have on imitation branded goods, even if they examine them carefully for the poor quality.) See our guide to shopping in China. Whether you're a backpacker traveling on an arm, a minor transportation family, or an elder looking to make your pension/savings tight to cover that trip to China you want, there are many ways to cut the costs of the China tour. For example, Xianglu Temple near Xi'an will give you a beautiful view of the Yellow River, Buddhist culture and Ming architecture for 10 yuan. Plan well in advance and be flexible à ~ "Time is money that you do not need to go to the Potala Palace in Tibet to experience the Tibetan culture. This usually means traveling in winter. You should never waste money on something you don't want to do with us. We can provide transportation and guides for large groups that will help you realize your group's plans for less, rather than "herding." And some low-priced attractions are great value for money, giving you something original that the most visited places they do, even though the facilities may be deficient. Most places and services offer group discounts. Increase in savings with group size up to about 50 (a bus load). Coach tours are the cheapest, but notorious for Tourists on a hurried and unmanaged itinerary. For example, you may not be able to afford a trip to Tibet, but there are Tibetan areas in Sichuan and Yunnan that offer similar cultural and scenic attractions, accessible with less costs and problems. They can be before wanting to read travel independently in China - how it differs from the West. Read these seven points on how to plan a highest trip to China.
